

Improving our knowledge on transport pollution and health

TRANSPHORM Workshop for Stakeholders

Quantifying Health Impacts of Particulate Matter over Europe

New approaches, Implications and Recommendations for Policy

Date and Time: Tuesday 6th May, 10.00am – 15.30pm

Location: Rue de Champ de Mars 21, B-1049 Brussels, Belgium Meeting Room, Floor -1, Room SDR2

Agenda

Chairs: Ranjeet S Sokhi and Menno Keuken

- 09.30-10.00 Registration
- 10.00-10.10 Introduction and Aim of Meeting
Ranjeet S Sokhi, University of Hertfordshire, UK
- 10.10-10.30 Overview of TRANSPHORM - Approach and Achievements
Ranjeet S Sokhi, University of Hertfordshire, UK
- 10.30-10.50 Advances in City and European Emissions of Particulate Matter
Zisis Samaras, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece, and Hugo Denier van der Gon, TNO, The Netherlands
- 10.50-11.10 Modelling of Particulate Matter on City and European Scales
Menno Keuken, TNO, The Netherlands
- 11.10-11.30 Assessment of Population Exposure to Particulate Matter for London and Helsinki
Jaakko Kukkonen, Finnish Meteorological Institute, Finland
- 11.30-11.50 Health Impact Assessment in TRANSPHORM: City Case Studies
Brian Miller, Institute of Occupational Medicine, UK
- 11.50-12.30 Discussion with feedback from participants
Chair: Dick van den Hout, TNO, The Netherlands

12.30-13.30 Lunch

Chairs: Ranjeet S Sokhi and Menno Keuken

- 13.30-13.50 Reducing Future Health Impacts of Particulate Matter over Europe - An Integrated Assessment Approach
Rainer Friedrich, University of Stuttgart, Germany
- 13.50-14.10 Comments and Experience from TRANSPHORM City Partners
Saskia Willers, Environmental Protection Agency Rijnmond (DCMR)
- 14.10-14.30 Policy Relevant Recommendations for Health Impacts Assessment of Particulate Matter
Ranjeet S Sokhi, University of Hertfordshire, UK
- 14.30-14.40 PM Health Impact Assessment in EU Policy - Lessons Learnt and Outlook
Andre Zuber, European Commission
- 14.40-15.30 Discussion with feedback from participants
Chairs: Ranjeet S Sokhi and Dick van den Hout

15.30 Close of meeting